

It's Playoff Time in the ECHL

Round #1 is finally over!

First of all, I would like to congratulate the Wheeling Nailers on their great season. Not that I'm being partial but....err....well....HELL YES I AM, I'm partial!! Even though I live on the west coast now I still follow the Nailers. I grew up in the area and still have family there. Plus, this year our family sponsored a player for the first time. We feel fortunate to have gotten the best luck of the draw. JF Boutin was our adopted player, and he has been great, even early on when the language was still giving him a hard time. Then to top it all off he came out of the season as the Nailers' Rookie of the Year. But the entire team has been great and did a fantastic job, even though most of them were new to the league. Once again, congratulations to the entire team: the players, the coaching staff, just everyone.

Monday Games

N#2 Roanoke Express	3-2	N#7 Huntington Blizzard
S#1 Louisiana IceGators	6-4	S#8 Mobile Mysticks

Below is listed the latest playoff information that I have assembled. Clicking on the team logo will take you to their home page (if one is available). Teams that have RealAudio broadcasts of the games have a link for the broadcast with an arrow pointing to which team's broadcast it is. These are the links for the audio stream that will launch your player automatically if you are configured for it, not just a page telling you about the broadcast. If you do not have a copy of the RealAudio player, follow this link to RealAudio for a copy of the player. Any corrections or missing information that you may find, please fill me in via the Message Panel to the right so that I can get the page corrected. All comments are welcomed, whether good or bad.
